

Roger Cukierman

WJC Vice-President

President, Representative Council of Jewish Institutions of France

Roger Cukierman was born in 1936 in Paris, France. He has a BA degree in law and a PhD in economics, from the ESCP Paris Business School.

From 1963 to January 1999 with the Edmond de Rothschild Group, became CEO of the Group in France in 1993. Mr. Cukierman is also former CEO of Israel General Bank, a former Director of Club Med, Bolloré, PEC New York and many international companies. He also worked as the director of the Association of French Bankers, Banque Vernes, Credit Suisse Asset Management France, Banque Privée Edmond de Rothschild Switzerland. Presently he is the director of Soparexo-Chateau Margaux.

Roger Cukierman is the Author of “The Capital in the Japanese Economy” and “Ni fiers nidominateurs”.