

Mike Jobbins is Director of Global Affairs at Search for Common Ground, a leading conflict transformation organization. Search has worked on supporting media, community dialogue, and collective actions for peace and reconciliation in Burundi for more than two decades. Mike has covered the Great Lakes for 10 years, most recently as the Senior Program Manager for Africa at Search. He previously lived in Burundi and the DRC, and worked on the region as a Program Associate at the Woodrow Wilson Center.