

Maria C. Werlau co-founded in 2002 and still heads the Free Society Project, a non-profit organization to advance human rights through research and scholarship. Its leading initiative, the Cuba Archive Truth and Memory Project, focuses on transitional justice issues and human exploitation. Ms. Werlau is a former Second Vice President of Chase Manhattan Bank and a longtime independent consultant specializing in advisories on Cuban affairs and other international issues. Her extensive publications on Cuba cover a wide range of topics including policy, international law, foreign investment and other economic issues. She has served Task Forces on U.S.-Cuba Relations for the Council on Foreign Relations and the American Enterprise Institute. She has a B.S. in Foreign Service from Georgetown University and a Masters in International Affairs from Universidad de Chile.