

I, Ruchika Abbi, am a Legal Permanent Resident of USA since 2010 and a citizen of India, residing in Chantilly, Virginia employed as a Cloud Solutions Architect with Amazon Web Services in Herndon, Virginia since 2013. I came to the U.S. on a student visa in the year 2000 and got married to Suraj Seth in New Delhi, India in 2001 after which we both came to the U.S. with the intent of permanently settling here. Over the years, I joined the U.S. workforce and switched to H1 work visa, sponsored my husband's dependent visa and in year 2010 we both became permanent residents of the U.S. Roshni Seth, is a U.S. Citizen by birth, born on 12/24/07 in Fairfax, VA. She resided with both parents at the marital home in Chantilly, Virginia until 4/15/14, when she was uprooted from her habitual residence by her own father and separated from her mother. Roshni was abducted to New Delhi, India and ever since, I have been desperately seeking her return to the U.S.
