

Thabani Maphosa is the Partnership Leader for Food Assistance at World Vision International and acting Senior Director for the Food Security and Livelihoods team at World Vision US. In these roles, Thabani leads a global team of technical specialists across the World Vision partnership to deliver quality food assistance programming. With a Master's degree in Agriculture from the University of Zimbabwe, Thabani's career has included 12 years at World Vision working in numerous countries across Southern Africa. Previously, he held positions of Research Fellow and Lecturer at the University of Zimbabwe's Faculty of Agriculture as well as various consulting roles, including the esteemed firm PricewaterhouseCoopers. Thabani's influence extends beyond the World Vision partnership; he currently serves as the representative for WVI on the WFP Executive Board and is the focal person for the global Food Security Cluster (gFSC). Thabani is currently based in the Washington, D.C. office.

Languages: English

Twitter: @MaphosaThabani