

North Korea policy expert Dr. Suzanne K. Scholte

Dr. Suzanne K. Scholte

Dr. Scholte is considered one of the world's leading activists in the North Korean human rights movement. She has spent the past two decades promoting the freedom and dignity of the North Korean people and is currently President of the Defense Forum Foundation, a non-profit foundation promoting a strong national defense and freedom, democracy, and human rights abroad. In 1996, Scholte began a program to host the first North Korean defectors in the United States, giving them a voice to speak out about the atrocities being committed against the people of North Korea, including the political prison camps and the horrific treatment of refugees. She has led international efforts to pressure China to end their horrific repatriation policy and has been involved in the rescue of hundreds of North Koreans escaping their country.

Currently, Scholte also serves as Chairman of the North Korea Freedom Coalition, Vice-Chair of the Committee for Human Rights in North Korea, and Honorary Chairman of Free North Korea Radio. In recognition of her efforts, she was awarded the 2008 Seoul Peace Prize Laureate, the 2010 Walter Judd Freedom Award, the 2013 Order of Diplomatic Service Merit Sungnye Medal from the Republic of Korea, the 2014 Sanders Peace and Social Justice Award, and a Volunteer Service (Gold) Award from the President of the United States in 2014. She was made an Honorary Citizen of Seoul in 2008.

Scholte has testified before the United States Congress and at the United Nations. As a frequent speaker at international conferences, she has also been a guest lecturer at Yonsei University (Seoul) and Koshin University (Busan) and has presented at the National Defense University, Harvard, Wellesley and Princeton, University of Virginia, University of Illinois, and numerous other colleges. Scholte is also the Chairman and Founder of the U.S.-Western Sahara Foundation.

Scholte has appeared on numerous news segments including CNN, ABC, Fox, KBS, SBS and Arirang TV and has published OPEs in the Washington Post, Wall Street Journal, Washington Time, Chosun Ilbo, and DongA Ilbo. She is a graduate of the College of William and Mary and received an Honorary Doctorate in Education from Koshin University. Scholte resides in Falls Church, Virginia with her husband, Chadwick R. Gore, and is the mother of three sons, Chester (29); Christian (26) and James (16).

Summary of Scholte's North Korea Human Rights Work:

- Established and Chairs North Korea Freedom Week in 2005 to promote the freedom, human rights and dignity of the North Korean people.
- Established and Chairs Save North Korean Refugees Day, held annually since 2009 to promote awareness and action to save North Korean refugees.
- Chairman and Founding Member, North Korea Freedom Coalition, an organization of over 65 nongovernmental organizations and individuals from around the world promoting the freedom, human rights and dignity of the North Korean people.
- Serves as Honorary Chairman, Free North Korea Radio, the only defectors-run radio program broadcasting news and information into North Korea.
- Serves as Honorary Chairman, North Korea People's Liberation Front, elected unanimously by former North Korean soldiers who are working against the Kim Jong-un regime and pro-communist groups in South Korea.
- Serves as Vice Chairman and Founding Board Member, Committee for Human Rights in North Korea, an organization that publishes factual information about North Korea human rights issues.
- Established the Sin U Nam Rescue Fund in 2002. Scholte continues to support the rescue of hundreds of North Korean refugees through the underground railroad.
- Organized annual Protests at Embassies of China to Save the North Korean Refugees since 2002.
- Hosted the first North Korean defectors to speak out publicly in the USA in 1997.
- Hosted the first survivors of the North Korean political prisoner camps in the USA, 1998.
- Organized the largest delegation of North Korean defectors to visit the USA, 2009.
- Helped author and present The Seoul Statement on North Korean Human Rights in 1999 at the First International Conference on North Korea Human Rights and Refugees.

U.S. Congressional Hearings Scholte Has Organized:

- Scholte has hosted visits to the USA for hundreds of defectors from North Korea to testify in Congress and speak at conferences and events.
- She has organized:
  - The first Congressional hearing on the North Korea's political prison camps (1999) and the most recent hearing on the political prison camps (2011).
  - The first Congressional hearing on the trafficking of North Korean Women (2005).
  - The first Congressional hearings on South Korean and Japanese Abductees, South Korean POWs, and North Korea's Illicit Activities (2006, 2006).
  - The first Congressional hearing witnesses on the persecution of Christians in North Korea (2008).

