Anita Plummer is an Assistant Professor of African Studies whose research focuses on African political economy, emerging markets, transnationalism and Sino-African relations. Her current book project, Close Encounters: Street-level perspectives on Kenya and China examines local, national and transnational narratives of South- South cooperation. Before joining the faculty at Howard University, Anita taught International Studies at Spelman College. She was a Mellon post-doctoral fellow in the Cultures in Transnational Perspective Program and Visiting Assistant Professor of Global Studies and Political Science at the University of California Los Angeles. She was also a fellow at the Carter G. Woodson Center Pre-doctoral fellow at the University of Virginia. She received her Ph.D. from Howard University in Washington, DC.
