

Hearing on “The Youth Bulge in Africa: Considerations for US Policy”

U.S. House of Representatives

House Foreign Affairs Committees

Subcommittee on Africa, Global Health, Global Human Rights, and International Organizations

Macani Toungara Biography

Macani Toungara currently runs a leadership capacity-building program for emerging African Leaders. Previously, Ms. Toungara was the Senior Director for Program Development at TechnoServe in Washington, D.C. In this role, she managed the development of strategic bids; lead donor engagement with the Gates Foundation, U.S. Department of Agriculture and U.K. Department for International Development; and supported program development capacity building. She has expertise on subjects including public private partnerships, supply chain linkages, SME development, market systems development, food security promotion and job creation. Before joining TechnoServe, Ms. Toungara was a consultant with the Boston Consulting Group, in Washington, DC, where she worked on projects in consumer goods and financial services.