

Hearing on “Combating Global Human Trafficking”
U.S. House of Representatives
House Foreign Affairs Committees
Subcommittee on Africa, Global Health, and Global Human Rights

Mr. Alex Thier

Alex Thier is the CEO of the Global Fund to End Modern Slavery, a multi-donor fund working to eradicate forced labor and human trafficking around the world. Alex was appointed by President Obama as the Chief of Policy, Planning, and Learning at the US Agency for International Development, where he served from 2010 - 2015 and he was the Executive Director of the Overseas Development Institute, a think tank in London focused on economic development, climate, and conflict. In 2020-2021, Alex also served as Co-Director of the bi-partisan Task Force on US Strategy on Supporting Democracy and Countering Authoritarianism.