

Hearing on “Combating Global Human Trafficking”
U.S. House of Representatives
House Foreign Affairs Committees
Subcommittee on Africa, Global Health, and Global Human Rights

Mr. Peter Williams

Peter Williams serves as the International Justice Mission’s Principal Advisor on Modern Slavery. He is responsible for IJM’s center of excellence in addressing slavery, developing globally applicable best practices from IJM’s extensive programmatic experience worldwide. Most recently, Peter served as Country Director in Cambodia, where he led the development of IJM’s new program to address cross-border labor trafficking within recruiting corridors in the Greater Mekong Subregion, leading to the conviction of more than 30 traffickers in three years. Peter has also served as Field Office Director in Bangalore, India where he developed a team of lawyers, social workers, investigators, and advocacy professionals to expand IJM’s counter-bonded labor programming in the region. Before IJM, he was a Crown Prosecutor in Auckland New Zealand, where he prosecuted criminal jury trials and was published in the New Zealand Law Journal.
