

United States House of Representatives
Committee on Foreign Affairs

"TRUTH IN TESTIMONY" DISCLOSURE FORM

Clause 2(g) of rule XI of the Rules of the House of Representatives and the Rules of the Committee require the disclosure of the following information. A copy of this form should be attached to your written testimony and will be made publicly available in electronic format, as required by House rules.

1. Date of Hearing: February 11, 2015

2. Your Name: Daniel Byman

3. Organization or organizations you are representing:

I am a professor at the Security Studies Program in the Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service with a concurrent appointment with the Georgetown Department of Government at Georgetown University.

I am also the Research Director for the Center for Middle East Policy at The Brookings Institution.

However, as noted below, I am presenting testimony representing my personal views. Georgetown University does not take institutional positions on any issue related to this hearing. As an independent think tank, the Brookings Institution does not take institutional positions on any issue.

4. Since January 1, 2013, have you or your organization(s) received any Federal grants or contracts (including subgrants and subcontracts) related to the subject of the hearing or your representational capacity at the hearing? Yes No (select one)

5. Since January 1, 2013, have you or your organization(s) received any contract or payment originating with a foreign government related to the subject of the hearing or your representational capacity at the hearing? Yes No (select one)

If you answered "Yes" to either item 4 or 5, list the source and amount of each grant, contract, or payment. You may list additional grants, contracts, or payments on additional sheets.

I am testifying on my own behalf rather than representing institutional views of Georgetown University. However, on advice of the Georgetown Compliance Officer and other officials, I was instructed to report any funds given to my research and teaching center at Georgetown, where

I am a professor within the Center for Security Studies (CSS) within the School of Foreign Service. The CSS has not received any federal grants related to the subject of this hearing according to Georgetown administration officials. Nor has it received any money from a foreign government related to the subject of this hearing.

Consistent with the Brookings Institution's commitment to independence (which includes not taking Institutional positions on issues), I am hereby informing the Committee that my testimony represents my personal views and does not reflect the views of Brookings, its other scholars, employees, officers, and/or trustees.

I inform the Committee that, to the best of my knowledge, since January 1, 2013, through my work at Brookings, the following Federal grants or contracts (including subgrants and subcontracts), and/or grant agreements or payments originating with a foreign government were paid to Brookings, and I billed part of my time to associated internal accounts. These Federal and/or foreign grants or payments were for independent research and analysis related to a number of subject matters, including a portion of which may be related to the Hearing.

- Embassy of the United Arab Emirates – approximately $1 million in support of numerous scholars and research areas.

2015

- Embassy of the United Arab Emirates – approximately $1 million support of numerous scholars and research areas.

In further response, out of an abundance of caution and with consideration to the fact that I am testifying on my personal views, I am also providing a link to Brookings's Annual Reports, which identify Brookings donors, including funds received from Federal grants or contracts (including subgrants and subcontracts); and/or grant agreements or payments originating with a foreign government from July 1, 2003 to June 30, 2014.
