

Mauricio Claver-Carone Biography

Mauricio Claver-Carone is the Executive Director of Cuba Democracy Advocates in Washington, D.C., a non-partisan organization dedicated to the promotion of human rights, democracy and the rule of law in Cuba.

Mauricio has served as an Attorney-Advisor for the U.S. Department of the Treasury, where he authored regulations on securitizations and the implementation of the Basel II framework for international capital standards. Prior to his work in government, he served as a Clinical Assistant Professor at The Catholic University of America's School of Law and as an Adjunct Professor at The George Washington University's National Law Center.

Claver-Carone's writings have been featured in a variety of publications including: The New York Times, The Wall Street Journal, Politico, The Hill, The Georgetown Journal of International Law and the Yale Journal of International Affairs. Claver-Carone is also the Editor of the well-known blog, Capitol Hill Cubans, and has served as host of the foreign policy show "From Washington Al Mundo" on Sirius-XM's Channel 153.

He has provided expert testimony before the U.S. House of Representative's Committees on Foreign Affairs, the Judiciary and Natural Resources.

Mauricio earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from Rollins College, Juris Doctor from The Catholic University of America and Master of Laws (LL.M.) in International and Comparative Law from Georgetown University Law Center.