

Witness Bio:

David Andrew Weinberg is the Anti-Defamation League's Washington Representative for International Affairs. He serves as the organization's main point of contact on foreign affairs issues for Congress, the administration, and foreign embassies. He also serves as ADL's lead analyst on the Arabian Peninsula.

Just prior to joining ADL, David worked for four years at the Foundation for Defense of Democracies as FDD's Senior Fellow responsible for studying the six Gulf monarchies. In that capacity, he testified frequently before Congress and authored monographs about incitement in Saudi textbooks and about Qatar's record on terrorist finance.

David previously served as a Professional Staff Member working on Mideast issues at the House Committee on Foreign Affairs. He holds a Ph.D. in political science from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology with a focus on international relations and security studies.

David lives in Rockville, Maryland with his wife, Rachel, and their daughters Margaret and Shoshana.
