

Short Biography

Marcus Allen is a veteran intelligence professional with 20 years experience including time served as a US Marine in Iraq, Kuwait, and Japan.

Mr. Allen's FBI roles included Staff Operations Specialist within the Intelligence Program and Critical Incident Operations Specialist within the Crisis Management Program.

In 2019, Mr. Allen was recognized as the FBI Charlotte Employee of the Year.

In 2004, Mr. Allen finished as the runner-up for Marine Corps Intelligence Activity (MCIA) Intelligence NCO of the year.

Mr. Allen was trained as an Intelligence Specialist by the Navy and Marine Corps Intelligence Training Center. He also received training from the Defense Intelligence Agency, US Army Intelligence and Security Command, and Counterterrorism Training for Anti-Terrorism Prosecutors and Joint Terrorism Task Force Agents at the National Advocacy Center.

Mr. Allen holds a Bachelor of Arts in Intelligence Studies from American Military University.