

BIOGRAPHY FOR GREG BRYAN

Greg Bryan has been involved in the resort hospitality industry for over 40 years having worked in mountain, lake, ocean and desert facilities. He is currently the Vice-President & Chief Operating Officer of the Best Western Premier Grand Canyon Squire Inn, a 250 room upscale resort hotel located just outside Grand Canyon National Park in Tusayan, Arizona. He is the Mayor of the Town of Tusayan. He has served on numerous local, state and national hotel and tourism boards both in Montana and Arizona. He has served on the Arizona Hotel & Lodging Association Board of Directors, Arizona Tourism Alliance, The American Hotel & Lodging Association Board of Directors & Audit Committee, the Grand Canyon Chamber of Commerce and is a member of the Arizona Rotary E-Club. He has worked with a variety of state and federal departments on behalf of tourism opportunities, legislative issues and education.

Before coming to Arizona, Bryan had his own resort property management company in Whitefish, Montana, where he provided professional services for condominium resorts, as well as consulting and providing development services on projects. He has worked in Hawaii; Sun Valley, Idaho; and South Lake Tahoe. Bryan holds a certification as a Certified Hotel Administrator (CHA).