

Biographical Information

Elisabeth Heller Drake is a GS-13 Special Agent (Criminal Investigator) with the Environmental Protection Agency's Office of Inspector General, where she has worked since January 2013. She also has worked as a Special Agent for the Offices of Inspector General of the Government Printing Office and the Department of Health and Human Services. Prior to her time as a federal agent, she worked for four years as a Department of Defense, Defense Security Service background investigator. She holds a bachelor's degree in Administration of Justice from George Mason University, where she was an honor student. In her seven years in federal law enforcement she twice has received a Special Act of Service Award for her investigative work.