

Mark Filip

Mark Filip is a partner in Kirkland's Chicago and Washington, D.C. offices. At Kirkland, Mr. Filip leads the Firm's government enforcement defense and internal investigations group, and he serves as one of 15 members of the Firm's worldwide management committee. Filip has been repeatedly recognized as one of America's leading attorneys. Prior to joining Kirkland, Mr. Filip was at the U.S. Department of Justice, where he served as Deputy Attorney General of the United States after being unanimously confirmed by the U.S. Senate. As Deputy Attorney General, Mr. Filip was second-in-command of the Justice Department and oversaw all of its criminal and civil enforcement efforts. Mr. Filip also served as Acting Attorney General for the new administration after January 20, 2009, until Attorney General of the United States, Eric Holder, was confirmed. Prior to serving as Deputy Attorney General, Mark spent four years as a federal judge in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois after being confirmed 96-0 by the U.S. Senate. Filip previously served as a law clerk to Justice Antonin Scalia of the U.S. Supreme Court and to Judge Stephen Williams of the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals.
