

Tom Perrelli

Thomas J. Perrelli is a nationally recognized litigator who is the chair of Jenner & Block's Government Controversies and Public Policy Litigation practice group. In 2009, he was nominated by the President and confirmed by the Senate to the position of Associate Attorney General of the United States, the third highest-ranking official in the U.S. Department of Justice. In that capacity from 2009 to 2012, Mr. Perrelli was responsible for the Department's Civil, Antitrust, Civil Rights, Environment and Natural Resources, and Tax Divisions, the United States Trustee Program, the Office of Justice Programs and the Office on Violence Against Women, among others. Mr. Perrelli began practicing law as an associate at Jenner & Block in 1992. He left the Firm in 1997 to serve as counsel to then - U.S. Attorney General Janet Reno, rising to the position of Deputy Assistant Attorney General in the Department's Civil Division before returning to Jenner & Block in 2001. Over the next eight years, he concentrated his practice in copyright, media and constitutional litigation and served as Managing Partner of the firm's D.C. office.