The Honorable Mark DeSaulnier
Committee on Oversight and Reform
Business Meeting
June 12, 2019

Mr. Chairman, during the Committee's business meeting on Wednesday, June 12, 2019, I was unavoidably detained and unable to vote due to four amendments I authored to stand up for children, families, and workers being considered concurrently on the House floor.

Had I been present, I would have cast the following votes:

- Hice Amendment (#2): NO
- Higgins Amendment (#3): NO
- Norman Amendment (#4): NO
- Cummings Amendment (#5): AYE
- Meadows Amendment (#6): NO
- Gibbs Amendment (#7): NO
- Comer Amendment (#8): NO
- Final Passage of the Resolution and Report: AYE
- The White House Ethics and Transparency Act (H.R. 391): AYE
- National Historical Publications and Records Commission Reauthorization Act (H.R. 2978): AYE

I respectfully request that the official record reflect this information.

Sincerely,

Mark DeSaulnier
Member of Congress
