

Zeneta B. Everhart is a Buffalo, New York native born and raised on the East Side of Buffalo. She holds an Associate's Degree from Villa Maria College, where she studied Liberal Arts – Humanities, graduating in 2009. She then continued her education at Canisius College where she studied TV Production and Interpersonal Communication, graduating in 2011 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree. Upon graduation, she accepted a position with Spectrum News Buffalo, as a breaking news photographer, and eventually became a Producer. After six years of working in news and media, Zeneta made the career leap into politics, accepting a position with New York State Senator Tim Kennedy of the 63rd District. She serves as his Director of Diversity & Inclusion; where her focus is on ensuring equity through legislation, community building, and the equitable distribution of resources. This is a position she takes seriously, as she has been charged with ensuring that the community in which she was born has a seat at the table. One of her greatest accomplishments in her role in the Senator's office is the creation of Single Moms Club Buffalo; a support group for single moms. The Single Moms Club is an initiative that offers women an opportunity to focus on their personal growth providing them with vital resources helping to bridge the gap, while also providing a space for social engagement, sisterhood, and trust. She is a Humanist who believes in the power of serving others through love and understanding. This is a quote by her favorite author which she feels sums up her drive and fuels her passion
