

Monica Evans

Monica Evans currently serves as the Executive Director of the D.C. Board of Elections. She served as the Senior Policy Advisor at the DC Board of Elections (DCBOE) and assisted the Executive Director with election operations and policy implementation. She also provided direct oversight over the Voter Education and Outreach and Election Worker Divisions.

Monica Evans brings broad and deep experience to the Executive Director position beyond the senior leadership role at DCBOE. Prior to DCBOE, Ms. Evans served as the Director of Grants Management at the U.S. Election Assistance Commission where she provided oversight responsibilities for the Office of Grants Management and Payments. She worked with EAC officials and grant recipients to encourage sound program administration and to enforce program and financial compliance with the provisions of the Help America Vote Act, Office of Management and Budget (OMB) guidance, EAC policies, and recipient agreements and plans. She consistently provided information and reports to members of Congress and was responsible for audit resolution and drafting advisory opinions.

She also worked in a senior position at the Department of Health and Human Services/Administration for Children and Families and at the Legal Services Corporation. She was the Deputy Director of AmeriCorps at the Corporation for National and Community Service, and started her professional career at the Maryland Governor's Commission on Service.

Ms. Evans holds a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Maryland School of law and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Virginia.
