

03/21/2018	HW3	Apple iCloud Backup #11	3/21/2018: WA message between James B. and SM. SM says: "Send me text saying what you told me over the phone please . If YOU NO LONGER EISH TO BE INVOLVED IN THIS VENTURE REGARDLESS of how tangentially I need it in writing. Because at you have pointed out over and over again- you cannot be my uncle or my protector and counsel if you don't have all the information. Well this time I don't have any information at all and these guys may or may not be something different than I thought . I promise I did everything I could to make certain of that/ that they adhered tonOUR standards. - but Jesus this is insanely complicated. Anyway, we can talk later but you've been drawn into something purely for the purpose of protecting Dad- and I know any of the BS money is mine ultimately- Well you've done your job and he fucking but only is true to form but even more so why be so horribly angry over nothing g but being duped. You both ha e said it's bigger than me a family ... Well I get it always have never violated that in any way never broke a law but I get your point. I understand That but I still haven't received information that would allow to make the "informed decision" you constantly talk about I GET IT. No ultimate decision yet- this may all be good- but I'm sorry for dragging you into it." James B. responds later "(...) I am no dupe for anyone. If you see me as an agent for my brother, there is something seriously wrong." and then later says, "Kevin, is pressing to know if deal is going to get done! FYI if you want to talk about it, I'll be on my cell all day."
