Re: Hearing titled “Oversight of the U.S. General Services Administration”

On Thursday, October 19, 2023, at 10:00 AM ET in room 2154 of the Rayburn House Office Building, the Committee will host a hearing titled “Oversight of the U.S. General Services Administration.”

I. BACKGROUND:

The U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) was established in 1949 to consolidate administrative functions throughout the federal government. GSA’s activities managing acquisition, maintenance, and disposal of real and personal property, fleet vehicles, and information technology influences billions of dollars in annual discretionary spending across executive branch agencies.

II. HEARING PURPOSE:

This hearing will provide Members the opportunity to conduct oversight of the GSA’s activities by hearing directly from the GSA Administrator.

III. WITNESS:

The Honorable Robin Carnahan
Administrator
U.S. General Services Administration
