

Joseph Edlow is the founder of the Edlow Group and the Law Offices of Joseph Edlow. Prior to 2021, Mr. Edlow served in numerous government roles in both the Executive and Legislative Branches of the federal government. Most recently, he served as the Acting Director of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services from February 2020 through January 2021. Prior to that, Mr. Edlow served as USCIS' Chief Counsel. Before joining USCIS, Mr. Edlow was appointed as a Deputy Assistant Attorney General in the Department of Justice's Office of Legal Policy where he focused on immigration regulatory work. Before joining the Trump Administration in 2018, Mr. Edlow spent 3 years working the House of Representatives. He first served as counsel to then Congressman Raul Labrador and then served as counsel on the House Judiciary Committee's Immigration and Border Security Subcommittee under former Chairman Bob Goodlatte of Virginia. Mr. Edlow began his federal service as trial attorney for U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement in its Baltimore Field Office.