Israeli activist praises
Trump's peace plan: 'He...

✕

WASHINGTON DC

Trump's DC crime crackdown busts another alleged Tren de Aragua gang member: 'Make DC Safe Again'

Attorney General Pam Bondi announces over 1,094 total arrests and 115 illegal guns seized in federal takeover

By Cameron Arcand · Fox News

Published August 26, 2025 9:17am EDT Updated August 26, 2025 9:22am EDT

👍 Like                                                                          👍 6

Recommended Videos

| Israeli activist praises Trump's peace plan: 'He... | Senate tensions lead to heated confrontations ov... | Pompeo cautiously optimistic on peace deal's... | Fetterman 'optimistic about longevity of Tr... |

Another alleged Tren de Aragua gang member was arrested in Washington, D.C., on Monday night, as Attorney General Pam Bondi continues to announce arrest statistics following the federal law enforcement takeover of the capital city.

In total, the Department of Justice says there have been over 1,094 arrests and 115 illegal guns seized.

"87 more arrests and 4 illegal firearms seized last night in Washington, DC — where not a single carjacking has occurred over the past week. We also arrested another Tren de Aragua gang member and a man caught burning our American flag in Lafayette Park. Make DC Safe Again!" Bondi posted to X on Tuesday morning.

FEDS NAB SUSPECTED MS-13 GANGSTER, TOP 700 ARRESTS IN DC CRACKDOWN