

Independent Women's Voice Supports The D.C. Taxing Authority Review Act

July 16, 2026

Dear Members of Congress,

Washington, D.C. needs fiscal restraint. We applaud Chairman Comer for activating Congress against troubling fiscal proposals. The city's new leadership proposes to set the nation's capital on the fast track to decline.

The bill is the blockade against out-of-control spending financed by heavy new taxes on businesses and residents. Redistribution of funds will not fix the hardship that massive tax increases will inflict. Given that the city faces the massive budget shortfalls that will worsen when businesses and professionals flee the city from new taxes, it's critical that federal lawmakers take an active role in squashing the worst economic tendencies of the city's leadership.

Sincerely,
