

"As an organization dedicated to protecting the financial security of America's seniors, we applaud Chairman James Comer for advancing the DC Taxing Authority Review Act. Retirees and those living on fixed incomes in the district deserve the confidence that tax policies will be subject to meaningful oversight, transparency, and accountability. This legislation ensures that taxpayers' interests remain front and center and that government exercises its taxing authority responsibly."

-Rebecca Weber, Chairwoman, AMAC Action