

Anthony Marino is the Director of Legal Services at the Irish International Immigrant Center in Boston, Massachusetts, where he leads a team of seven immigration attorneys focusing on family and humanitarian immigration legal services for refugees, asylees, victims of domestic violence, and immigrants in medical crisis. Prior to his current role, Anthony worked as a staff attorney at the IIC and in private practice exclusively in the field of immigration law. Anthony earned his bachelor's degree in International Relations at Northern Arizona University, and a JD and a master's degree in International Relations at Boston University. He is a member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association.