

Willie Carver teaches French and English at Montgomery County High School, where he has taught since 2013. He is a 17-year teaching veteran who has taught at the university and high school level in Kentucky, Georgia, Vermont, and France. Willie has a dual endorsed Master's in Teaching in French and English, a Rank 1 in French linguistics, and additional graduate work in English and skillful teaching. Willie has published a great deal of research and presented on a great deal of subjects as a member of the Kentucky World Language Association, the National Council of Teachers of English, the Kentucky Philological Association, Ed Camp, Educators Rising, the Center for Collaborative Literacy, and the Kentucky Education Summit, to name a few. Willie is a recipient of the Kendall Smith Kentucky Star Awards, a 2021 Teacher Who Makes a Difference award, and was chosen as the 2022 Kentucky Teacher of the Year.