

Biography - Jennifer Cousins

I am a mom of four kids, a 6 year old girl, 8 year old boy, 12 year old non-binary child and a 14 year old boy. I live in Orlando with my husband and our family, where I am a stay at home mom and an LGBTQ+ rights/public education/anti-censorship advocate. I am actively engaged with the Orange County School Board and work with other parents, community leaders and teachers to support our public schools. I also serve as the Membership Chair for the Orange County Democratic Party.
