

Dave Wise

Director, Physical Infrastructure Team

U.S. Government Accountability Office

Dave Wise began his career with GAO in 1981. From 1985-1989 he served as an analyst in GAO's Far East Office, based in Honolulu, HI. In 1990, Dave moved to the State Department's Inspector General, where he became director of the consular and international programs division. From 2000 to 2006, Dave served overseas as a Foreign Service Officer, first as a political officer in Embassy Hanoi, Vietnam; then as director of the Narcotics Affairs Section in Embassy Vientiane, Laos; and lastly as a political advisor to a U.S. Army Civil Affairs unit in Helmand Province, Afghanistan. Dave returned to GAO in 2007 as an executive candidate and became a member of the Senior Executive Service in 2009. Dave's issue areas include federal real property and surface transportation. Dave holds BA and MA degrees from the University of Pittsburgh.