MEMORANDUM

May 17, 2019

To: Members of the Subcommittee on National Security

Fr: Majority Staff

Re: Hearing on “Securing U.S. Election Infrastructure and Protecting Political Discourse”

On Wednesday, May 22, 2019, at 2:00 p.m., in room 2154 of the Rayburn House Office Building, the Subcommittee on National Security will hold a hearing on the security and resiliency of the U.S. electoral system.

I. HEARING PURPOSE

This hearing will examine the security of the nation’s election systems, including the government’s response to ongoing attempts by malicious actors to interfere in our elections, influence public opinion, and undermine U.S. electoral processes. The hearing will also examine the important role of state and local governments, as well as private sector partners, to protect U.S. election security systems, infrastructure, and technology platforms.
