

The Honorable William F. Galvin
Secretary of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts

William Francis Galvin was elected to the Commonwealth's third-ranking constitutional office in 1994 and is currently serving in his seventh term.

Serving as the Commonwealth's chief elections officer, Galvin is one of the state's premier election law specialists. During his tenure, he has overseen development of the statewide database of registered voters and implemented the Help America Vote Act.

As the state's chief securities regulator, Secretary Galvin has earned a national reputation for aggressively protecting investors and has recovered millions of dollars for victims of securities fraud. He has shown strong leadership in state oversight of the financial services industry and has received millions of dollars for victims of fraud.

As Chairman of the Massachusetts Historical Commission, he has overseen the award of over $400 million in historic tax credits which has spawn construction throughout Massachusetts.

Galvin is a graduate of Boston College and holds a Juris Doctor from Suffolk University School of Law. He has been an active participant in the National Association of Secretaries of State, currently serving as co-Chairman of the Committee on Securities and former Co-Chair of the Committee on Presidential Primaries.