

Moshe Schwartz

Moshe Schwartz is president of Etherton and Associates and holds positions as Defense Fellow at the Coalition for Government Procurement and Director at the Procurement Round Table. Previously, Moshe served as Executive Director of the congressionally mandated Advisory Panel on Streamlining and Codifying Acquisition Regulations (section 809 Panel), senior advisor to the Commission on Wartime Contracting in Iraq and Afghanistan, and advisor at ISAF headquarters in Afghanistan. He spent 15 years providing analysis and legislative support to Congress on acquisition policy and industrial base issues, including as a senior analyst at GAO and specialist at the Congressional Research Service.

Academically, Moshe was an adjunct instructor at National Defense University's Eisenhower School for National Security and Resource Strategy and at Carnegie Mellon University's Heinz School of Public Policy. He holds an M.B.A. from Carnegie Mellon's Tepper School of Business, a Master of Science in Public Policy Management from Carnegie Mellon's Heinz School of Public Policy and Management, and a J.D. from Yeshiva University's Cardozo School of Law.