

Gavin Kenneally, PhD is the Co-Founder and CEO of Philadelphia based, Ghost Robotics. Prior to his role as CEO, he was Head of Product for the company, responsible for the mechanical design of the company's flagship robot Vision 60 Q-UGV. As CEO of Ghost Robotics, Dr. Kenneally spearheads a team of highly skilled engineers and researchers who share his passion for creating advanced robotics systems. Ghost Robotics has gained a reputation of pushing the boundaries of robotics technology, particularly in the field of legged robots. Their Vision 60 is used throughout the DoD for a variety of use cases. Dr. Kenneally earned his PhD in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Pennsylvania and has authored six academic papers and thirteen patents.