Re: Hearing titled “Doing More with Less: Deleting Duplicative Programs”

On Wednesday, February 11, 2026, at 10 a.m. ET in room HVC-210 of the U.S. Capitol Visitor Center, the Subcommittee on Delivering on Government Efficiency will host a hearing titled “Doing More with Less: Deleting Duplicative Programs.”

I. BACKGROUND:

The size and scope of the federal government have increased massively over the past half century. This growth has resulted in a tremendous amount of duplication, overlap, and fragmentation among federal programs, including domestic assistance programs. The result is waste, fraud, and abuse of billions of federal taxpayer dollars.

II. HEARING PURPOSE:

This hearing will examine steps that Congress can take to identify cost savings by identifying and remediating duplication among federal programs.

III. WITNESSES:

Ms. Orice Williams Brown
Acting Comptroller
U.S. Government Accountability Office

Mr. Paul Winfree
President and CEO
Economic Policy Innovation Center

Mr. Matt Weidinger
Senior Fellow and Rowe Scholar
American Enterprise Institute
