

Bio for Michael L. Lenahan

Business Information:

Profession: President and CEO (Since 2001)

Business Name: Resource Recovery Corporation of West Michigan

Resource Recovery Corporation (RRC) is a recycling company that works with approximately 35 foundries to recycle their byproducts. We take these materials (sand, slag) and repurpose them into new markets such as asphalt, soil blending, and construction materials.

Location: Coopersville, MI

Years Foundry Industry: 27

Previous Employment:

RMT, Inc. – Environmental Consulting

Kurtz Bros., Inc. – Industrial Recycler

Education:

Undergraduate Degree - Applied Science - Bowling Green State University

Graduate Degree – Masters in Business Administration – University of Notre Dame

Business and Professional Organizations:

American Foundry Society – National Director

American Foundry Society – Division Chairman – Environmental, Health and Safety

American Foundry Society – AFS/FIRST (Recycling Entity) – President

Foundry Association of Michigan – Past President, Currently Secretary/Treasurer