

Megan H. Tinker
Office of Counsel to the Inspector General
Office of Inspector General
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services

Megan Tinker is Senior Advisor for Legal Review for the Office of Counsel to the Inspector General, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. She advises the OIG on jurisdiction and oversight issues under the IG Act, and health care fraud and compliance matters, including Medicaid, Medicare and grant programs. Ms. Tinker is responsible for executive level direction and oversight on highly complex and sensitive matters for which the Office of Counsel provides legal advice and representation to OIG officials on a wide range of issues dealing with fraud, waste and abuse in HHS programs and grants.

Ms. Tinker has spoken to the Association of Government Accountants, Association of Healthcare Internal Auditors, American Health Lawyers Association and the American Association of Public Welfare Attorneys and provides training on OIG jurisdiction and authorities. Ms. Tinker is guest lecturer at the American University, Washington College of Law, Health Law Program. Ms. Tinker graduated cum laude from American University, Washington College of Law and with honors from University of Richmond.