

214 Massachusetts Avenue, NE
Washington, DC 20002
(202) 546-4400
heritage.org

February 26, 2019

Committee on Oversight and Reform
Subcommittee on Government Operations
2157 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515-6143

Dr. John W. York Biographical Information

Dr. John W. York is a Policy Analyst in the B. Kenneth Simon Center for Principles and Politics at the Heritage Foundation. He researches and writes about good governance issues such as civil service reform, executive branch reorganization, campaign finance, and federalism.

His writings have appeared in various publications, including the Washington Post, the Hill, National Review Online, The Federalist, Fedsmith, and The Washington Times. He is also a frequent contributor to the Heritage Foundation's multimedia news outlet, The Daily Signal.

York was born in Fairfax County, Virginia, and grew up in Chicago, Illinois. He earned a bachelor of arts in Political Science at Kenyon College in Ohio, a Master's degree in Politics at the University of Virginia, and his Ph.D from the University of Virginia.

Prior to graduate school, Dr. York served in the Coast Guard as a deck watch officer stationed aboard the US Coast Guard Cutter Mellon and, later, as the Operations Officer of the Chicago Military Entrance Processing Station.

He currently resides in Washington, D.C.