Re: Hearing on “Examining Federal Labor-Management Relations”

On Tuesday, June 4, 2019, at 2:00 p.m., in room 2154 of the Rayburn House Office Building, the Subcommittee will hold a hearing to examine the policies and management of the Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA).

I. SCOPE AND PURPOSE

The FLRA was established by the Federal Service Labor Management Relations Statute of 1978. The FLRA consists of: (1) a three-member Authority, appointed by the President, which interprets and applies the statute in adjudications of labor-management disputes arising in the federal workplace; (2) a General Counsel, with five regional offices, which investigates and prosecutes charges of unfair labor practices; and (3) a seven-member Federal Service Impasses Panel, appointed by the President, which resolves negotiating impasses by imposing contract terms. The hearing will focus attention on the policies and management of the Authority and the Office of General Counsel.

II. WITNESS

The Honorable Colleen Duffy Kiko
Chairman
Federal Labor Relations Authority

Staff contacts: Wendy Ginsberg, Lena Chang, and Jaron Bourke at (202) 225-5051.
