

Eric D. Gilbert

Executive Postmaster (A), Baltimore, MD

Eric D. Gilbert is currently the Executive Postmaster (A) of Baltimore, Maryland.

Eric's postal career began as a mail processing clerk at the Margaret L. Sellers Processing and Distribution Center (P&DC) over 26 years ago. He moved into management and served as Supervisor, Customer Services in El Cajon, CA, and Manager, Customer Services at both Serra Mesa and Otay Mesa Stations, Postmaster, La Jolla, CA, and Manager, Customer Service Operations in San Diego, CA.

He has served on several detail assignments including Manager, Operations Programs Support and Senior Manager, Post Office Operations, both in the San Diego District, and Plant Manager at the Moreno Valley P&DC. Eric has also served as Officer-In-Charge, Riverside, CA, and on executive detail assignments as the Executive Postmaster in San Diego, CA, and Baltimore, MD.

Eric holds a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Phoenix. He is a graduate of the Processing Distribution Management Program, Advanced Leadership Program and Managerial Leadership Program. Eric is Lean Six Sigma Green Belt certified.

He also served in the United States Marine Corps from 1989 to 1995.