

Linda Miller, a principal in Grant Thornton LLP's advisory services practice, leads the Fraud & Financial Crimes group.

Miller has over 15 years of experience and is a nationally recognized expert in fraud risk management. Prior to joining Grant Thornton, Miller was a senior executive in federal government, including serving as Deputy Executive Director of the Pandemic Response Accountability Committee (PRAC), an oversight body responsible for preventing and detecting fraud, waste, abuse, and mismanagement of $5 trillion in pandemic relief funds. She also spent 10 years at the Government Accountability Office (GAO).

Her thought leadership includes developing leading practices that guide the federal government and private sector, assisting in drafting antifraud legislation and serving as an expert witness. She led the development of GAO's Framework for Managing Fraud Risks in Federal Programs and helped draft the Fraud Reduction and Data Analytics Act, as well as served on the task force that developed the COSO Fraud Risk Management Guide.
