

Chauncey P Goss

Chauncey Goss grew up on Sanibel in the 1970's and '80's and he and his wife, Allison, have raised their three sons on the island. He received a BA from Rollins College and a Masters in Public Policy from Georgetown University. He began his professional career as the Executive Director of the nonprofit Gasparilla Island Conservation and Improvement Association in Boca Grande. His focus then turned to the federal government where he worked as a planner (wargaming) under contract with the Pentagon and then became an expert in the federal budget process working at both the Executive Office of the President's Office of Management and Budget as senior career staff and as Deputy Staff Director for the House Committee on the Budget. He is currently managing partner of a firm he founded that provides budget forecasting and federal fiscal policy analysis.

He served one term as an elected Councilman for the City of Sanibel from 2015-2019 and was appointed to the Governing Board of the South Florida Water Management District by Governor DeSantis in 2019. He was chosen to Chair the Board by his colleagues. He rejoined the City Council briefly in November 2020 when he was appointed to fill a five-month vacancy.

Goss is involved in his community and is a member of the Sanibel Captiva Kiwanis as well as the Sanibel Community Church. He currently serves on the Board of Trustees of the Canterbury School where he has served as Board Chair as well as the Board of Directors of Captains for Clean Water where he is Treasurer, the United Way, and the Community Foundation of Southwest Florida. He has been a board member of the Sanibel Community Association, the Ding Darling Wildlife Society, the Sanibel Captiva Conservation Foundation, and the Lee Coast MOAA Foundation. He served as an EMT and a firefighter/officer respectively for the Bethesda-Chevy Chase Rescue Squad and the Boca Grande Fire Control District.
