

BIOGRAPHY FOR

Katherine Iritani

(pronounced Ear-a-tawn-nee)

Katherine Iritani is Acting Director for Health Care Issues at the U.S. Government Accountability Office. In her 27 year-career with GAO, she has helped plan and execute a wide variety of program and evaluation assignments. In recent years, she has overseen multiple evaluative studies on Medicaid financing and access issues, including children's access to preventive and dental services. Ms. Iritani currently works in GAO's Seattle Field Office and has a business administration degree from the University of Washington.