

Rick DeLappe
Program Manager Recreation One Stop
U.S. Forest Service

Mr. DeLappe has worked with the Recreation One-Stop program for more than a dozen years. He provides leadership and direction for a virtual team of federal employees and contractors who are dispersed throughout the country. Mr. DeLappe has worked for the National Park Service in many different parts of the country as a park ranger, and other capacities, in places like Maui, Colorado, Yellowstone, Zion and New Orleans.