

Brandi Reeder, Assistant Commander Game Warden Texas Parks and Wildlife Department | Austin, TX

Assistant Commander Brandi Reeder has served as a Game Warden for 18 years; 12 years as a field officer in Rockport, Aransas County, and over 5 years as the Fisheries Law Administrator in Austin. Her coastal experience has facilitated her current role anticipating regulation and statute changes required to combat emerging trends encountered in the field. She was honored in 2011 with a Director's Citation for developing a women's outreach workshop and in 2013 with a Director's Life Saving Award. She currently serves as Vice Chair of the Gulf Council Law Enforcement Technical Committee and participates in the Gulf States Marine Fisheries Commission Law Enforcement Committee to assist in development of federal regulations. She teaches Commercial Fishing Regulations at the Game Warden Training Center, Justice of the Peace and Justice of the Peace Clerk Seminars, and as guest speaker at Texas State University. She has two children, 8 and 10, and volunteers as Committee Chair and Den Leader for her sons' Cub Scout Pack in Buda, Texas.
