

Biography of Captain Timothy Nick

Timothy Nick is currently a Captain in the Florida National Guard assigned to the 753rd Bridge Engineer Battalion as a signal officer. He has served in the Army for over 13 years and has over 10 years' experience as a law enforcement officer. He served as a former State Trooper with the Florida Highway Patrol and is currently a federal officer with the United States Secret Service. Captain Nick's prior assignment was serving in the District of Columbia (D.C.) National Guard as a commander for the D.C. Public Affairs Detachment. He was also assigned as the Aide-De-Camp (Personal Assistant) to Major General William Walker during January 6, 2021, as a first lieutenant.

Captain Nick is a graduate from Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University with a bachelor's degree in Homeland Security. He also has an associate degree from College of Central Florida in Political Science.