

Jacqueline De León, Staff Attorney, Native American Rights Fund

Jacqueline De León is an enrolled member of the Isleta Pueblo. She is counsel on the North Dakota voter ID cases Brakebill v. Jaeger and Spirit Lake Nation v. Jaeger. These cases allege North Dakota’s stringent ID and residential address requirements violate Section II of the Voting Rights Act and are unconstitutional. In addition to her work in North Dakota, De León co-lead a series of field hearings across Indian Country documenting barriers facing Native Americans’ access to the ballot box. She has testified before the Senate in its bipartisan roundtable “Voting Rights, Access, and Barriers to Indian Country.”

As a staff attorney at NARF, she helps lead field hearings across Indian Country on Native American voting rights and practices ongoing voter rights litigation. Prior to her work at NARF, De León was a senior associate at WilmerHale for four years focusing on international antitrust and litigation.

She holds a J.D. from Stanford and a B.A. from Princeton University in Philosophy. De León clerked for Judge William H. Walls of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey and Chief Justice Dana Fabe of the Alaska Supreme Court.
