5. The amount and source of each Federal grant (or subgrant thereof) or contract (or subcontract thereof) related to the subject matter of the hearing, received by you or an entity represented by the witness during the prior two calendar years (2013 and 2014): (attach additional pages as necessary).

I am testifying on my own behalf rather than representing institutional views of Georgetown University. However, on the advice of the Georgetown Compliance Officer and other officials, I was instructed to report any funds given to my research and teaching center at Georgetown, where I am a professor within the Center for Security Studies (CSS) within the School of Foreign Service. The CSS has not received any federal grants related to the subject of this hearing according to Georgetown administration officials, nor has it received any money from a foreign government related to the subject of this hearing.

Consistent with the Brookings Institution's commitment to independence (which includes not taking institutional positions on issues), I am hereby informing the Committee that my testimony represents my personal views and does not reflect the views of Brookings, its other scholars, employees, officers, and/or trustees.

I inform the Committee that, to the best of my knowledge, since January 1, 2013, through my work at Brookings, the following Federal grants or contracts (including subgrants and subcontracts), and/or grant agreements or payments originating with a foreign government were paid to Brookings, and I billed part of my time to associated internal accounts. These Federal and/or foreign grants or payments were for independent research and analysis related to a number of subject matters, including a portion of which may be related to the Hearing.

- CENTCOM (U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command) -- approximately $250,000 for support of numerous scholars and research areas.

In further response, out of an abundance of caution and with consideration to the fact that I am testifying on my personal views, I am also providing a link to Brookings's Annual Reports, which identify Brookings donors, including funds received from Federal grants or contracts (including subgrants and subcontracts), and/or grant agreements or payments originating with a foreign government from July 1, 2003 to June 30, 2014.
