

Michael J. Krol
Special Agent in Charge
Homeland Security Investigations

Michael J. Krol serves as the Special Agent in Charge (SAC) for Homeland Security Investigations (HSI) New England. In this capacity, Mr. Krol has oversight responsibility of HSI New England's area of responsibility (AOR), which includes twelve offices located throughout the six New England states of Connecticut, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont. The AOR encompasses approximately 72,000 square miles, wherein approximately 15 million people reside ranging from large metropolitan areas to extremely rural, wooded, and agricultural areas. HSI New England's workforce consists of over 300 employees, including special agents, criminal analysts, mission support personnel, and contract staff assigned throughout the region.

Prior to this assignment, Mr. Krol served as the Deputy Special Agent in Charge (DSAC) of HSI New England, overseeing investigative and administrative operations on behalf of the Special Agent in Charge. Before returning to his roots in Boston, Mr. Krol served in Washington, DC as the Chief of Staff (CoS) for HSI. During his tenure as CoS, Mr. Krol served as a strategic and trusted advisor to the Executive Associate Director of HSI, who is responsible for over 10,000 personnel assigned to 200 domestic and 90 foreign offices, with a budget exceeding $2.2 billion. Mr. Krol directly executed on the operational and administrative vision of the principal, while furthering the goals and priorities of the agency.

Mr. Krol has served in multiple field and HQ supervisory positions, including Assistant Special Agent in Charge, Commander of the multi-agency Organized Crime Drug Enforcement Strike Force (OCDETF), and Supervisory Special Agent. Mr. Krol also held positions in HSI headquarters, where he was the National Program Manager for the International Organized Crime Intelligence and Operations Center (IOC-2) and later as a the HSI Liaison to DHS Joint Task Force-Investigations.

Mr. Krol began his career in New York City as a DEA Special Agent, where he focused on complex money laundering, foreign corruption, and narcotics kingpin investigations. Mr. Krol is a proud graduate of Northeastern University, with a degree in Criminal Justice and Business Administration. Mr. Krol lives on the south shore of Massachusetts with his wife and their two teenage daughters.